Eliminate SIU President Post

(Related articles on pages 26-27)

The Board of Trustees of Southern Illinois University eliminated the position of president Monday and set up an administrative council to govern through August, 1971.

Elimination of the president's post is effective Sept. 1, the date which President Delyte W. Morris earlier had requested reassignment as president emeritus.

The change will occur at the outset of a one-year "transitional period" during which all aspects of SIU governance and administration will be evaluated. A decision on whether to re-establish the office of president will be made after the transition period.

During the change-over period, the chief administrative authority for SIU will be the University Administrative Council headed by Clarence Stephens, a former vice-president of SIU located at SIU-SW and more recently a special assistant to the president and to the acting chancellor of the Carbondale campus.

Powers of President
His title will be chairman of the University Administrative Council and he will have the authority to execute the policy powers now vested with the president.

The actions were among six resolutions approved by the board of trustees as the first in a series of moves to streamline and decentralize SIU's administration.

They generally follow recommendations made to the board last month by the management consulting firm of Cresap, McCormick and Paget.

In another move, the board named James M. Brown, now an assistant to President Morris to the newly created post of "chief of board staff." He will be responsible solely to the board and will be able to name his own assistants for academic, financial and legal matters.

Member of the new University Administrative Council under Stephens will be the chairmen of the Carbondale and Carbondale-Southwestern campuses, two systems vice-presidents to be named later by the board, and the chief of board staff.

To Review Reorganization
The transitional period is designated as Sept. 1 to Aug. 31, 1971. During that time, according to the resolution, the chairman of the University Council will lead review of University reorganization, seek maximum feasible decentralization of the University to the campuses, determine what activities should or should not be retained as central functions of the system, and determine if the system needs a permanent president. He is to submit a progress report to the board by June 30, 1971.

The board created the "office of board staff" last month. Duties of its chief, set forth by the trustees, will include being the board's educational analyst and adviser, providing contact with the Illinois Board of Higher Education, representing the trustees before outside agencies, supervising budget preparation, reviewing planning projects, preparing the annual report and insuring that "board members are fully informed on matters coming to them for discussion."

Both Stephens and Brown are to assume their new duties Sept. 1.

The systems vice-presidents would serve in the transitional period to handle affairs now reported to the central SIU administration. They could serve beyond 1971 if the board decides they should.

Stephens came to SIU as a University School staff member in 1952 and six years later was named central budget officer for the University. An SIU

Area Group Urges State To Extend FA Rt. 151

The Illinois Department of Public Works and Buildings and the State Highway Division were urged by a delegation of Quad-City representatives in Springfield Tuesday to move immediately toward extension of the Great River Road (FA Route 151) from its present terminal point at Nierlinghaus avenue in Granite City to a connecting point with McKinley Bridge in Venice.

The presentation was made by Quad-City tax agency and industrial officials on grounds of a dire need for adequate access to the southern Illinois and Missouri highway systems as outlets for shipments from the Quad-City area.

The Great River Road, which extends here from the north, ends abruptly at Nierlinghaus avenue in Granite City at the entrance gate of the Granite City Army Depot.

Seek 12th Street Link
At the same time, local interests pressed for an extension of 12th street from State street in Madison across the railroad tracks in the vicinity of General Steel Industries' Common wealth Division plant, connecting with the Great River Road.

No definite answers to questions posed by the Quad-City representatives were given by state officials, who said the problem will be studied and that another meeting will be called soon in which more adequate answers will be discussed.

Representing the state at the meeting were Thomas Dunn, executive assistant of the Illinois Department of Public Works and Buildings; Ray Dickerson, director of the Illinois Department of Business and Economic Development; Al Bernardi, administrative manager of the Department of Public Works; Ralph Brown Jr., deputy chief engineer of the Illinois State Highway Division; Melvin Larson, representing the motor fuel tax division of the State.

Quad-City representatives included Earl Jarrett, mayor of Madison; Robert Stevens, mayor of Venice; and Charles Moerlein, mayor of Pontoon Beach.

Adhesive Plant to be Constructed; Policy On Leases Considered

Purchase of a 1.8-acre tract in the Maers Industrial Park by Swift & Co. on a bid of $18,500 was approved by the Madison city council by an 8-0 vote during a meeting Tuesday night.

The chemical division of the firm plans to construct an adhesive plant at the location. The bid was submitted on July 21 but approval was delayed as members of the council awaited the outcome of last week's mayoral election and debated the policy on lease and sale arrangements on industrial tracts.

The sale to Swift required the approval of all eight voting members of the council who were present at the meeting. Absent were Third Ward Alderman Stanley Krakowicki, who was in Springfield on city business, and Second Ward Alderman Robert D. Pittman, 17, of 1811 Second street, Madison, with burglary and Gertrude Winick, 39, of 2607 Hodges avenue, with theft of more than $150.

Much of the loot from the store was found in the Winick home, police said.

Office Building Damaged
The company's main office and warehouse located across the street had only minor damage as the fire department used some of its equipment to protect the major structure. The roof was scorched, two windows and awnings were broken and burned and telephone service was disrupted.

Food and other items in the warehouse were not effected as power lines escaped damage and the firm was not hampered in supplying its stores.

Granite City firemen, assisted by equipment and men from the Madison and Venice volunteer fire departments, were on duty until 7 a.m. Smoke continued to filter through the charred ruins at noon today, and traffic was detoured as a cleanup operation was underway.

Group to Study Madison Taverns Formed by Mayor
A three-way committee to study the Madison tavern situation and the controversial closing hours was established by Mayor Mike Sasek at a meeting of the city council Tuesday night.

He appointed a license and permit committee which will meet with a citizens advisory committee and with representatives of the tavern owners.

Carrie Warfield, Resident Here 40 Years, Dies at 84
Mrs. Carrie Warfield, 84, of 219 Pershing avenue, mother of William Warfield, Granite City Superintendent of Streets, died at 2:30 p.m. Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. A patient at the hospital for one week, she had been ill for two weeks.

A 40-year resident of Granite City, Mrs. Warfield was born in Dover, Tenn. She was a member of the First Assembly of God Church.

Her husband, Thomas Warfield, died in 1950. Other survivors include two sons, Cale Warfield of Collinsville, and Florence Warfield of Granite City; two daughters, Miss Orenne Warfield of Granite City and Mrs. Nellie (Frances) Salv of East St. Louis; a brother, Dallas Stubbfield of Jackson, Tenn.; a sister, Mrs. Lon (Amanda) Gansler of Hazle, Ky.; nine grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are being given in the obituary column.

Special GC Council Session Tomorrow
The Granite City council will meet in special session at 8 p.m. tomorrow for further action in the long-standing dispute over the city's new garbage dump.

The two women have been removed from the police dispatchers jobs as the result of a stipulation in court proceedings in which the court is asked to rule on the authority of Mayor Donald Partney to assign employees to specific jobs and set their salaries.

Prospective new voters, as well as those qualified to vote but not registered, may register now at the county clerk's office in Edwardsville, with deputy registrars in the Quad-City area, or at one of several special registration centers to be conducted at various locations within the next two months.

Voters' registration will be accepted tomorrow at Kroger grocery store, Nameoki Village shopping center, and on Saturday at Tri-City grocery store, 420 Broadway, Venice.

Deputy registrars have been assigned to both locations between the hours of noon and 7 p.m., Miss Holt said.

The county clerk noted that college students who will be leaving the area to resume their studies at universities elsewhere are especially encouraged to register at this time. Registration certificates will be held in abeyance until Jan. 1, 1971, after which voter certificates of identification (pink cards) will be mailed to the students and others registered now who are 18 through 21 years.

Registration of 18-year-olds was started at the direction of Governor Richard Ogilvie and Secretary of State Paul Powell, Miss Holt said.

CLEAN-UP TASK AT FIRE SCENE was well under way early this morning at the Tri-City Grocery Co. storage building, the former Draper planning mill, on the eastern side of the 1600 block of State street. The blaze totally virtually leveled the frame structure. This view is toward the north. Other pictures on page 10.

Fire Razes Tri-City Grocery Building

A Tri-City Grocery Co. storage building at 16th and State streets was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin early today, Mayor Mike Sasek at a meeting of the city council Tuesday night.

The fire department, which received the first alarm at 3:05 a.m., estimated damage at $25,000, including $10,000 to the building and $15,000 to the contents.

Second Youth Charged In Pontoon Burglary
Adolph Ponder, 17, of the YMCA, was charged with burglary at 5 p.m. Tuesday in a warrant obtained by Pontoon Beach police in connection with the break-in last Thursday at the P. N. Hirsch store in the Gaslight Plaza shopping center.

Also charged in the case are Robert D. Pittman, 17, of 1811 Second street, Madison, with burglary, and Gertrude Winick, 39, of 2607 Hodges avenue, with theft of more than $150.

Much of the loot from the store was found in the Winick home, police said.

To Recommend Rules
The group will be asked to make recommendations on closing hours, conduct of patrons in Madison taverns, license fees, the number of licenses to be issued, and the number of ordinances and other problems.

Currently taverns are permitted to remain open until 4 a.m. in specified session at 8 p.m. tomorrow for further action in the long-standing dispute over the city's new garbage dump.

The two women have been removed from the police dispatchers jobs as the result of a stipulation in court proceedings in which the court is asked to rule on the authority of Mayor Donald Partney to assign employees to specific jobs and set their salaries.

City Acts To Hire Full-Time Attorney

Council Concurs in Proposal to Set Up New Permanent Office

A move to set up a full-time city attorney's office in which the attorney's only duties would be the handling of city business was initiated by the Granite City council Monday night following the resignation of Assistant City Attorney Harry Hartman which left the council without immediate legal counsel.

The action was taken on a motion by Alderman Walter Nomm, who told council members that "you only answer now" to the problem of legal counsel "is a full-time city attorney—a man available at all times who would handle nothing but city work."

Hartman's resignation in Monday night's meeting, submitted by letter as a communication to the mayor and council, followed that of the previous week by City Attorney Leon Scroggins. Hartman gave no reason for leaving the post, but earlier reports indicated that he, like Scroggins, objected to a cut in salary.

Pay Slashed in Half
The salary reduction resulted from adoption by the city council July 27 of a new 1970-71 budget in which the council's finance committee headed by Alderman R. E. Robertson set a salary of $6000 for Scroggins and $3000 for Hartman. Scroggins had been receiving $12,000 a year and Hartman $6000 a year.

In council discussions prior to final approval of the budget, Scroggins warned the council he would resign if his salary were cut in half. The council ignored the warning and retained the lower salaries in the final appropriation bill.

Neither Scroggins nor Hartman was present when the council session convened Monday night, but Mayor Donald Partney brought up the subject, after Hartman's letter of resignation was read, by presenting a letter from Scroggins.

Full Salary If Utilized
The attorney pointed out that under state statutes an appointed city attorney remained in the office until a successor was appointed, but that any business he might be required to handle before the appointment of a successor would be payable at the original salary base of $12,000 per year.

Scroggins' letter said a constitutional rule provides that a resigned officer continue his duties until his successor takes over, but that his original salary base is applicable.

"That," said Robertson, "is just one man's opinion. He quit his job."

"But I have not yet accepted his resignation," Partney replied.

Scroggins' resignation was accepted by a council vote of 10 to 2 at the July 27 council meeting when the budget was finally adopted.

manager of A. O. Smith Corp. and president of the Manufacturers Association of the Tri-Cities; and William F. Hoelscher, executive secretary of the Manufacturers Association.

Hoelscher said the meeting was arranged under the joint sponsorship of the Manufacturers Association and the Tri-City Port District to air the need of better access to highways systems to the south via the Great River Road beyond Niedringhaus avenue in Granite City.

Route 151 is immediately accessible to the Port District as an outlet for trucks, but traffic presently must be routed through downtown Granite City to reach a bridge over the Mississippi River or to reach highways extending into southern Illinois.

Extend to Venice, South
He pointed out that the Great River Road also would provide a southerly outlet for truck traffic from Quad-City industries if it were completed at least as far as the city of Venice, where it could connect with McKinley Bridge to take traffice into Missouri, or with Illinois Route Three for a southerly route.

The state highway division completed the stretch of Route 151 from a point north of Pontoon road to Niedringhaus avenue last year under previously committed contracts.

Further planning was held up during the last two years because of the federal freeze on allocation of U. S. highway funds to Madison and St. Clair counties, resulting from a government ultimatum that not enough minority group members were employed on highway construction jobs in the bi-county area.

New Pact on Fund Freeze
Tuesday's Springfield meeting to consider further development of the Great River Road coincided with announcement of an agreement between the U. S. Department of Labor and the state of Illinois on a contract to finance job training for minority workers under the Omnibus Plan — so named because it was conceived by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie as a solution to the federal highway fund freeze.

The governor's plan—providing for training of minority workers in construction work in-six crafts—has been accepted by the contracting, citizen and state entities involved and the freeze officially ended in June. Release of federal funds was held up, however, until details of the training program could be worked out.

The fund contract for financing the training announced in Washington Tuesday was signed yesterday in Washington between the Department of Labor and the Illinois Bureau of Employment Security, apparently ending the last possibility of delay in getting Madison and St. Clair county highway projects underway.

Bridge Convenience Cited
Venice Mayor Lee told the group in Springfield, Tuesday that traffic over McKinley Bridge not only would offer a traffic route to industry and port facilities, but would aid the bridge financial problem.

It was pointed out that extension of the Great River Road was recommended to the Illinois Highway Problems Commission in 1968 as one of the most urgently needed undertakings, but that the project was tied up in the highway fund freeze that also delayed about $100 million in highway

Report Girl Beaten

A Venice couple reported to police at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday that their 17-year-old daughter had been beaten on several occasions by a 20-year-old Brooklyn man. Police advised the parents to sign a complaint on behalf of the minor child with the state attorney's office.

projects in the bi-county area since July 1968.

$6 Million Project
Kronst estimated the project will take from $6 to $8 million to extend the highway from Niedringhaus avenue to Venice. The job includes construction of an overpass at Chicago avenue in Granite City to bypass a series of railroad tracks.

Most of the right-of-way for the southerly extension of Route 151 has been purchased by the state, although it was reported yesterday that one of the present obstacles involves transfer of property held by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers in the vicinity of the Army Depot to the highway project.

Kronst also told the meeting that construction of the extension to Venice, if it were to start, a month immediately, would take almost two years.

Smith Commander of Naval Reserve Center

Capt. Bruce B. Smith assumed command of the U. S. Naval and Marine Corps Reserve Training Center at Lambert Field in a ceremony at the Center Wednesday evening.

A native of Waupaca, Wis., Captain Smith comes to St. Louis from Norfolk, Va., where he was the Naval Air Systems Command Atlantic representative.

After attending the University of Wisconsin he entered the Navy in 1942 and received his Ensign's commission and pilot's wings in September 1943. He served with patrol squadrons in the Pacific during World War II.

He makes his home at 53 Highland Park drive, St. Louis county, with his wife, the former Wanda L. Gover, daughter, Carolyn, and son, Craig.

Capt. Smith relieves Lt. Cdr. William P. Stiegler, who has commanded the center since the retirement of Capt. Benjamin G. Preston on June 27. Stiegler will resume his former assignment as Training Center executive officer.

Registration of New GC Students Scheduled Aug. 27

Registration of new students will be held in the elementary schools of Granite City school district Thursday, Aug. 27, from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m., it was announced today.

Junior and senior high school students new to the district may register any time from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday from now through the end of the summer vacation in the school they will attend. Junior high students will be advised during registration of a time and place for testing which will determine class placement.

Those who have questions about where to register their children may call the school board office, 876-0600.

Any child who will be five years of age on or before December 31, 1970, is eligible to enroll in kindergarten. A birth certificate must be presented at the time of registration.

Must Have Shots
Illinois law provides that no child may enter school for the first time without the following immunizations: whooping cough, diphtheria, tetanus, smallpox, polio and measles (or the illness). The only exceptions are for religious or medical reasons.

Physical examinations are required also of all students entering any school in the state for the first time. Forms for physical examinations may be obtained at the Board of Education office, 20th and Adams streets, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Parents of new students are urged to meet the immunization and physical examination requirements prior to registration. Registration may not be completed until either all medical requirements have been met or written evidence of doctor's appointment within two weeks of school opening is presented by parent.

B. J. Davis, superintendent of schools, urged that all students entering the Granite City district for the first time be registered before the first day of school.

"It is a mutual interest of the parent, the child and the school that every child be placed as early as possible in a program which will best meet his or her particular educational needs," Davis said. Davis also urged parents knowing of new families in their neighborhood to encourage them to register their children.

Only students new to this district or who have not previously been in school need to register. Kindergarten children registered last spring need not register again.

Karen Reisinger Breaks Another Ozark AAU Mark

Another Ozark AAU record captured five first-place medals in the Region VIII Invitational Swim Meet, which concluded Tuesday at the Jewish Community Center natatorium in St. Louis.

Karen Reisinger, 13, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reisinger, 2242 State street, the local girl smashed an Ozark AAU record in the 200-yard freestyle event, with a time of 2:22 minutes, breaking the previous record by two full seconds.

Four other first place medals by Karen were achieved in the 100 and 200-yard breaststroke events; the 100-yard freestyle and a sixth-place in the 100-yard freestyle event.

Breaks Another Record
Another Granite City swimmer, Mark Buegner, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Buegner, 2128 Lindell Blvd., broke a JCCA pool record in the 50-yard breaststroke event, with a record time of 37.2 seconds, bettering the previous record by 3.1 seconds.

Karen, who will enter the eighth grade at St. Joseph's parochial school in September, currently is preparing for the most important swimming meet in her youthful career.
On Wednesday, Aug. 19, the Granite City girl will travel to Los Angeles, Calif., where she will compete in the National AAU Championships starting Aug. 28.

The local swimmer met qualifying times for the national championships and a possible berth on the U.S. Olympics swim team by scoring first place victories in the 100-meter (one mile) event at Quincy on July 17 and in the 400-meter individual medley and the 200-meter breaststroke events at the Region VIII AAU Cham-

New Attendance Record

A new single-day attendance record for the Gateway Arch Transportation System was set Saturday, Aug. 1, when 5738 persons made the trip to the top of the nation's tallest monument. John D. Kusiel, manager of the Arch Transportation System, said that the previous record was set last June 27.

Daughter Born To Former Residents

Mrs. and Mrs. William O'Rourke of Route Two, Collinsville, formerly of Granite City, are announcing the birth of a daughter Wednesday at DePaul Hospital in St. Louis. $53,432 Bid on Propane Gas for Public Housing

Alton Bottle Gas Co. of Alton was low bidder at $53,432 on providing propane gas to the Granite City Housing Authority during the coming year, opening of bids showed Tuesday night at the August meeting of the five-member board of commissioners.

A total of 651,000 gallons is to be provided for heat, hot water and cooking at Kirkpatrick Homes and Anchorage apartments. Lighting Supply Co., Salem, Ill., bid $8,825 and A-1 Gas Co., Arnold, Mo., bid $71,610.

The contract was awarded tentatively to Alton Bottle Gas, pending ratification by the Chicago regional office of the U. S. Housing and Urban Development Department.

Executive Director David Morgan reported installation of a metal fence along the Namook road side of the Kirkpatrick project, in conjunction with the widening and improvement of the roadway. The fence will reduce the possibility of small children darting into the path of passing trucks and autos, it was noted.

Other current improvements at Kirkpatrick include additional street lights and repair of concrete sidewalks.

Chairman Ernest Veihl Jr. presided. Commissioners present were James Cox and Frank Fuzessary, and a guest was Jack Fricker, who has been designated as a commissioner, subject to approval by the Department of Housing and Buildings of the Illinois State Department of Local Government Affairs.

Commissioner Earl Thompson was on vacation. Walter Pfaff, a board member until Fricker's appointment is approved, is a surgery patient.

ness, and First Ward Alderman Donald Reeves.

When the council was advised that less than a unanimous vote would require a new call for bids on the property, a lengthy discussion was held on the sale-lease policies.

Move City Forward
Second Ward Alderman Richard Kiser said that the sale of the land would move the city forward and moved for a roll call vote to accept the Swift bid.

Corporation Counsel Nick Vasiloff questioned Kiser's opinion, and the alderman said that bringing new industry in the community would increase the tax base, provide employment gains and would require no revenue on the part of the city in constructing an industrial plant.

Second Ward Alderman Donald Broyles commented that the city has the potential to finance new plants "if we use the land we've got (the Chain of Lakes property) to operate a landfill."

Mayor Favors Sale
Mayor Mike Sasyk asserted that a landfill committee is to be appointed. Later in the discussion he announced that he favored the sale.

"At first I was against selling the (industrial park) ground, he said, "but after looking at some of the contracts, my opinion changed a little bit."

"I favor this contract but in the future we should give considerable thought about keeping the ground for lease to blue chip industries. The longer you hold it, the more valuable it will be. I think we ought to set a high price for the lease."

Vasiloff pointed to the possibility of industry financing its own plant construction on a lease basis.

"If we could get some kind of industry to put women or older persons to work, we would benefit," he said. "We have no room for residential expansion, new adhesive plant. Alltemp and I don't think new employees would move into the community. If we bring in industry to hire local residents, it would aid the local economy."

Kiser, who said he was assured the Swift plant would have no pollution nor odor problems, pointed to difficulties experienced in the past in bringing Came Steel Co. and other industries to the city.

He said the plant would employ 10 to 12 persons with 10 to be employed locally.

Third Ward Alderman Ray Kozielek, who served as acting mayor before Mayor Sasyk's election last week, and who was in the forefront of negotiations with Swift, commented that "industry is becoming more selective now. Industry now wants to own its own land and construct its own buildings rather than lease facilities. I have found that in most cases they want to own the ground."

Recreational Facilities
Vasiloff asked if the Swift transaction would interfere with long-proposed recreational facilities in a section of the industrial park.

Kiser noted that in past meetings it was shown that there would be no conflict between the Swift structure, plans for a future school building and the playground. He asked that the money received from Swift be set aside for playground purposes, but Corporation Counsel John Gitchoff advised it would have to be placed in the general fund and perhaps budgeted for playgrounds later.

Broyles asked the mayor how much would be gained in taxes from the Swift operation and was told that the amount would be $800 to $1000 per year.

During the discussion Gitchoff assured that a $4851 mechanic's lien, obtained against a Swift trial park by Alltemp Inc. is being cleared and would not effect the development of the

Police Dog Helps Clear Series of GC, Area Crimes

Granite City's police dog Heric helped clear a series of burglaries, auto thefts and other crimes Monday afternoon when he flushed a fugitive from a field of weeds and brush off of Chouteau Slough road.

In a matter of minutes after arriving at the scene, Heric had the man in the custody of his master, Officer Richard Woods.

Charged with burglary and theft after the capture was Clyde Wiser, 19, of 2200 Cardinal avenue, who was reported AWOL from Fort Riley, Kans.

Police said he admitted 15 crimes here, including a house burglary on Lincoln avenue, theft of autos and thefts from autos, in addition to auto theft in Alton and burglary of four auto houses in Calhoun county. Numerous autos were siphoned of gasoline, the report said.

The crimes began the first part of June.

Hold requests were being made by Alton, Calhoun and military authorities.

The break came at about 12:30 p.m. when Officer Albert Young received a tip that a car was in the weeds on Slough road. He drove to the scene and saw a man leave the car and head into the brush.

Young fired a shot in the air, but the man was running and disappeared.

The officer then called upon the department's canine corps for help, and Wiser was brought to the station by Woods and Officer Elwyn Dickey.

It was later determined that the auto in the weeds, a 1954 model, had been reported stolen Monday morning by Mrs. Artie Clark, 202 Nevada avenue. It was towed to a garage.

Auto Damage Reported
Mrs. Rose Jackovich, 1611 Elizabeth street, Madison, informed police at 1:45 p.m. Tuesday that vandals caused considerable damage to her auto while the vehicle was parked outside her home early Wednesday morning.

The vandals put dents in the left fender and chrome stripping, and red paint mark on the front bumper. The car's vinyl roof was torn and an outside rear-view mirror had been broken by the vandals, she said.

of Rocks bridge, and with Diamond Blasting Co. officers at 1 p.m. Monday, Aldermen were invited to attend. The public grounds committee is to meet at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Born in Intfield, Ill., he had made his home in Granite City for 19 years and had been employed at the local plant during that time.

Surviving are his wife, Alberta; two daughters, Mrs. Louise Arron, Joplin, Mo. and Mrs. Libby Finney of Sullivan, Mo.; four sons, Charles Mayberry, U.S. Navy serving in the Philippines, Robert Mayberry of Columbus, Ohio, Kenneth Mayberry of Houston, Texas, and John Mayberry of Centralia, Ill.; three sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Woods, St. James, Mo., Mrs. Gladys Dillion of St. Louis and Mrs. Bernice McCure of Mt. Vernon, Ill.; and nine grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

An Illinois First

A statewide emergency radio network now links 63% of Illinois' 900 law enforcement agencies for radio-car communication, according to Supt. Mitchell Ware of the Bureau of Investigation. Referring to the network as the first of its kind in the nation, Ware said it "will provide the means for cooperation and coordination between law enforcement agencies at every level."

'Ish' The Impish Tiger To Entertain at Fun Fair

"Ish," a childish and impish tiger, will make his appearance at the United Fun Fair accompanied by his friends, Tabetha or "Tabby" the Cat, "Axl" the Dog, and "Bobo," the timid Teddy Bear, to entertain the children and young people. They will be joined by Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy.

The second United Fun Fair will again serve as the official kick-off of the Tri-Cities United Fund campaign, and is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 3-4 at the rink-pavilion at Wilson Park.

Leo Konzen and Carl Mathias, co-chairmen for the "Fair" have secured the services of the Disney-type characters who are to visit the fair intermittently during the two days. Although the larger than life animals cannot talk they are able to write and will sign autographs and distribute a token gift to the young visitors.

Toured Country

"Ish" has just returned from another successful venture where he toured this country visiting many towns, cities and hamlets, assisting in fund raising campaigns. He has a "heart of gold" and tries to be of service to the less fortunate people, but very often causes havoc with his mischievous ways. Members of his entourage try, in their feeble way, to keep him out of "trouble" but usually become a part to his teasing antics.

The group of fun-makers will visit some of the area schools to personally invite the youngsters to attend the "Fair" to have fun and receive a variety of gifts and prizes.

Each booth will have free souveniers and prizes which have been donated by local businesses and industries. Amusement rides will be available for the children and adults. "Fair" hours will be from 1 to 9 p.m. both days.

Appreciation Week For Law Officers Urged

U. S. Senator Ralph Tyler Smith (R-Ala.) has introduced a resolution in the Senate to make Oct. 25-31 Law Enforcement Officials Appreciation Week throughout the nation.

"I am also writing President Nixon, Attorney General Mitchell, Governor Ogilvie, Attorney General Scott and Mayor Daley, asking them to declare and support Law Enforcement Officials Appreciation Week, and to participate in ceremonies during that period to memorialize officers who have given their lives in public service, to recognize outstanding police work, and promote greater community-police relations," Smith said.

"Most important," he said, "I am inviting public support of the Police Appreciation program throughout the state and the nation. I am asking all citizens to hold out the hand of friendship, confidence and support to the men in blue."

SIU Performing Arts Staff to Appear Here

Staff members and students from the Southern Illinois University Performing Arts Training Center in East St. Louis will present a lecture-demonstration program at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the auditorium at Dunbar grade school, Jackson and Third street, Madison.

No admission will be charged to attend the program which is being sponsored by the Venice-Madison Fine Arts Committee, a newly-formed organization dedicated to promoting cultural entertainment and educational opportunities in the local area.

In addition to the SIU Center performers, local artists and Quad-City students enrolled at the East St. Louis training facility will appear in several interpretive dance sequences.

An explanation and discussion by the SIU instructors will trace the history of poetry and origin of various traditional dances from which modern dance has evolved.

Those attending Tuesday evening's program also will be entertained with music by the Polychromatic Umbrella Band, a group of young local musicians who appear each weekend at the Polychromatic Umbrella Coffee House in Madison, a committee spokesman said.

Kennel Club to Sponsor 'Fun Match' Show at Park

The first "Fun Match" for all breeds, sponsored by the Quad-City Kennel Club, will have trophies valued at $1200 at a show to be held Sunday at Diamond 8 Wilson Park.

More than 100 entries have been accepted from Illinois, Missouri and Indiana and the club expects an additional 600 by the date of the show.

Entry fee for the first dog is set at $3.50 and $2 additional for the same dog entered in other divisions. All entries will be closed at 10 a.m. the day of the show with last sign-ups taken from 8 a.m. until starting time.

All trophies have been purchased from donations by local business places, including the "Best of Match" trophy which measures 4 1/2 inches.

There will be a Puppy Class with two divisions, one for puppies over two-months-old and under four months, and a second division for puppies over four months and under six months.

The regular puppy class is set up for puppies from six to nine months and nine to 12 months old.

Arrested on Warrant

James R. Thiele, 19, of 1202 Pontoon road, was arrested at 11:35 p.m. Tuesday on a warrant charging criminal damage to property. The complaint was signed by Carla Richardson. Thiele pleaded innocent and was released on recognizance.

Keep Political Activity Off Campus—Ottwein

Speaking before the SIU-SW Young Republican's club Monday, Senator Merrill Ottwein (R), Edwardsville, addressed himself to the issue of campus unrest in the United States and in foreign countries.

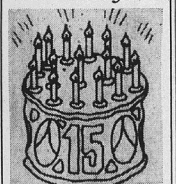

Citing events which recently occurred at Quito Central University in Ecuador, Ottwein drew parallels between the leftist movement which destroyed the university at Quito and leftist prevalent on U. S. campuses.

The state senator attacked all collective political activity of U. S. universities—rightist, leftist or middle-of-the-road.

"Politics breeds politics, and politics invites reaction. 'Actions involving the university in political activity violate the tenets of academic freedom, and those who are deliberately using the university to promote political causes are perverting its purpose,' he said.

In closing, Ottwein quoted several remarks from a student-written paper decrying the ruin of universities by politicization.

As a step toward saving institutions of higher learning, the paper recommended: "Administrators should be allowed and directed to the natural task of preserving our universities and removing destructive elements instead of the current practice of catering to dissidents at the expense of the university."

Mayor Urges New Post of City Collector

Granite City should create a new office—a city collector—if it has any intention of pressing for collection of many of the license fees that are due the city but never received, Mayor Donald Partney declared during regular meeting Monday night.

The proposal brought objections from Alderman Charles Moerlien who said that ordinances "are on the books" for the payment of license and permit fees and that if they aren't paid the violators should be arrested.

Partney, however, claimed it isn't that simple. He said a collector would be charged with checking into delinquent taxes owed by business operators, investigating operation of coin devices, cigarette machines and otherwise enforcing city ordinances designed to produce revenue, but which do not because they are not enforced.

Protest Distributor Fee The issue arose when City Clerk Robert Stevens presented a letter from Glen Hellbride, manager of the Illinois Vending

Co. of St. Louis, in behalf of the Alton Canteen Co., protesting the city's $500 fee assessed against distributors of vending machines.

Hellbride challenged legality of the city ordinance because, he said, it discriminates against the distributors who operate only one or two machines in the city, receiving only little revenue, compared to those who operate large numbers of machines. The letter requested arrangements for a meeting with city council members to discuss the problem. The council placed the letter on file with no action. Mayor Partney said that many business licenses are unpaid and fees are not paid on vending machines and similar operations because there is no one to check out the violations.

"Granite City never has had a city collector although one is provided by law," the mayor said. "The city clerk could act in the collector's place, but he certainly does not have time in our case. This council should allow the city clerk to name a collector and the office would pay for itself by checking out delinquent taxes and forcing their payment in return for a business license."

"I've tried my best to keep track of the businesses that owe back taxes," Partney said, adding that "all I get is a list which I would have to check out against each individual business operator... it's not my job."

Moerlien told the mayor: "We have ordinances on the book to take care of this type of thing. We don't need a collector or a city clerk to take care of it. The inspectors have done it before and they can continue doing it."

"Collecting a fee from a business should be done by the city just like the state does it. If they don't pay up in so many days, then we can go to court and close 'em up," Moerlien added.

Alderman Clyde Boyd moved that the council check with the cities of Belleville and Alton to determine what systems they use in collecting license and permit fees. Boyd's motion carried without dissent.

License Charge Filed Diane M. Huskey, 2809 Forest avenue, was arrested at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday on a charge of driving with an expired license on Route 162 at the blast furnace plant.

Slow-Pitch No-Hitter By Miller

Jeanne's French Quarter shut out the Doubles 21-0, Bricklayers' outbatted the Eagles 25-5 and Jets edged Hagop's Heroes 9-8 in Western Classic softball at Worthen Park Monday.

Art Miller pitched the slow-pitch no-hitter, backed up by Jeanne's strong defense and hitting. Leading the hitting were Bob Yates and Kevin Colligan with home runs and Dale Calpen, batting three-for-three.

Bricklayers built a 24-0 advantage based on Roger Fountain's four-for-four, including two home runs, a double and a triple. Dave Sues' two homers, John Meszaros' two doubles and a triple, and homers by Joe Hutson, John Modica and John Rice.

The Jets tallied the winning run in the bottom of the last frame, sending Ed Green across the plate on singles by Larry Pirtle and Roger Pifer after two outs.

AUTO RACING IS A GAME but winning is Dick Sutcliffe's business. At the Mid-Season Championships here he toted home the larger trophy (right) and $500 for winning the feature race. The smaller trophy goes to his car owner. Sutcliffe also received smaller sums of money for qualifying well and for placing in a heat event and the handicap trophy dash.

Amatti, Jones to Race Super Sprints Friday

Chuck Amatti of Greenfield, Tenn., and Bobby Jones, the star of the Springfield, Ill., speedway, are expected to join the field of super sprint car drivers at the Tri-City Speedway Friday.

The hobby-stock cars, after spending several weeks on the quarter-mile short track, are slated to move onto the half-mile oval where the sprint cars make their home.

Time trials are at 7:30 p.m. and racing is at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

Amatti, with irregular visits to Illinois' ovals, leads the standings at the Benton speedway and is second at the Marion speedway.

Amatti is usually roaming about the countryside looking for the "little bit more his style" race. He makes his major visits to the Mobile, Ala., speedway.

At the Mid-Season Championships here last week, he was the top qualifier and trophy dash winner. In the 50-lap feature race, loss of tire pressure forced him to give up the front-running spot after the 17th lap and eventually drop out of the contest.

"One-Armed" Winner

Of Italian ancestry, Amatti is known to many fans as the "little Italian" but fellow drivers have nicknamed him the "one-armed bandit." He has all his limbs; the nickname results from the first and second racing nights of his career.

In his first outing, his arm crashed and his arm was broken. The very next week he returned with one arm in a cast and collected top qualifier, heat event winner and feature race first-place money.

Jones, winner of the 150-lap on the quarter-mile sprint championship feature at Springfield Sunday, will be making his fifth visit of the season here. In all previous visits here Jones has failed to finish in the feature race because of engine problems.

At the Mid-Season Championships last week, Jones made his best showing of the season here. He seized his engine, lit appeared, over-revving it on the unusually tight turns at the Tri-City Speedway.

Band Day, an annual football season event for the past 24 years at the University of Missouri - Columbia, has been scheduled for the Sept. 11 M.U. Baylor game at Civic Center.

Busch Memorial Stadium in St. Louis. More than 4000 high school musicians, representing 50 to 60 bands from the St. Louis metropolitan area, outstate Missouri and nearby Illinois communities, will entertain en masse during half-time on the AstroTurf in the downtown St. Louis stadium.

The announcement was made jointly by Sanford J. Zimmerman, president of Downtown St. Louis, Inc., and Alexander L. Pickard, director of bands at the Columbia campus.

Previously, it had been necessary to cancel the annual Band Day event because of a scarcity of seats to accommodate student musicians at the stadium in Columbia.

An invitation from Downtown St. Louis, Inc., non-profit association of business firms, to reschedule Band Day in St. Louis for the Sept. 11 game was extended to Dan Devine, University of Missouri athletic director.

Four thousand seats at Busch Memorial Stadium have now been set aside to accommodate Missouri students.

Tickets for the Missouri-Baylor football game are available by mail. Reserved seats are $6 each plus 50 cents mail insurance handling charge per order. Checks or money orders should be made payable to the Athletic Department, University of Missouri, and mailed to P. O. Box 675, Columbia, Mo. 65201.

Fall Soccer Planning Launched

Tri-City YMCA Soccer Association President Ruben Mendoza has announced that the fall soccer schedule is being planned. It will begin on Sept. 12 and continue through early November.

At the end of the regular season, the champion team from each division will compete in a regional tournament including division champions from the Belleville, Dupo, Cahokia, East St. Louis, Caseyville and Collinsville associations.

Quid-City teams for Juvenile (14-15 years old) and Junior (15-17) division boys are being organized to compete on a regular schedule either in the Metropolitan St. Louis league or an Illinois league now being formed.

Boys interested in trying out for the Junior and Juvenile teams or interested in joining a Tri-City association team for boys aged six through 14 may phone the Mendoza Sports Goods, 876-1784.

Recent examples of the quality of soccer played here are the signing of local players Jerry Monahan and Norm Stein with the nationally respected SIU-SW Cougar team.

Local association team managers and coaches will have an organization meeting Aug. 18 at which time player rosters must be submitted.

Boys six and seven year old are especially being invited to join the youngest age group, the Pee Wee division. Managers, coaches and sponsors also are being sought for new youngest-division teams.

Mendoza is planning to conduct training clinics for managers and coaches to aid them in supervising their players.

Elementary school children are invited to participate in the fourth annual physical fitness workshop on Southern Illinois University's Southwestern campus Aug. 10 to 19 from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. daily.

Larry Moehn of the Health, Recreation and Physical Education faculty will serve as director of the workshop.

Purpose of the program, according to Moehn, is to provide entertainment for children through selected recreational activities. The children will be exposed to new games and innovations in the area of elementary physical education.

The workshop is for boys and girls in grades one through seven with a registration fee of $2.50 for one child and $3 for two or more children from the same family.

SIU-SW Acquires Part of World Famous Bridge

The SIU-SW Science and Technology Division has acquired a piece of Eads Bridge.

A ring used at the coupling of one of the panel points in the historic bridge, damaged last October when a towboat rammed its center span, has been presented to Dean Laurence McNaney by James Bowman, chief engineer of the Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis.

The remainder of the damaged part of the bridge, which belongs to TRRA, will be placed in the Museum of Transport, Bowman said.

In accepting the steel ring, Dean McNaney said, "If children in school studied the history of man's successes instead of concentrating on wars, which are the history of man's failures, then every child would know the exciting story of Eads Bridge."

Completed in 1874, the bridge was an engineering feat of Capt. James B. Eads, one of the pioneers of civil engineering. It is considered a monument to the originality, courage and genius of the man for whom it was named.

People said his dream of spanning the "Father of Waters" was crazy; other engineers pronounced it too hazardous. However, it still stands, carrying heavy railroad and highway loadings.

The bridge boasts a number of firsts: first extensive use of steel in bridge construction; first use of pneumatic caissons; and first use of hollow tubular chord members.

In 1920, Eads became the first engineer to be elected to the American Hall of Fame.

In his autobiography, written shortly before he died, Andrew Carnegie, who furnished the steel, credited his connection with Eads Bridge as starting him on his career.

Taxicab Passenger Robbed; Five Burglaries This Week

An armed robbery and five burglaries were among 21 theft reports investigated by local police and deputies since Monday afternoon.

Roy Bracamonte, 1732 Walnut street, reported to Granite City police at 10:15 a.m. Tuesday that he was robbed when a man shoved him to the ground and pointed a .38 caliber gun at him between 3 and 4 a.m. in the Mitchell area.

He told police he had caught a taxicab in Madison to return home, and enroute the cab picked up another fare, a young man who wanted to be taken home first. Upon reaching the Mitchell area the cab made a comfort stop and both passengers got out when the incident occurred, he said. The victim lost a boot when he was shoved.

Bracamonte said the cab left, he walked to the vicinity of Interstate 270 to catch another cab and was unsuccessful in efforts to contact the owner of the cab company.

The report, which was referred to the Madison county sheriff's office, did not specify the amount of money taken.

Washington School Burglary
Burglars spilled millinette over the second floor of Washington school, broke into a kitchen store room and took $7 or $8 in change during the weekend, it was reported Monday. They also took three marbles on the floor and plaster on the walls.

An undetermined number of 14-inch snow tires were stolen in a burglary at the Vandalla warehouse, 1100 Niedringhaus avenue, after 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, it was reported at 10:15 a.m. Wednesday.

Entry was gained from the east side of the building through an entrance to a room containing the tires. The lower panel of an overhead door was pushed in and failed to set off the alarm system.

Tavern Burglary
Nine fifths and nine half pints of whiskey plus a carton of cigarettes were taken in a burglary at Butz's tavern, 2401 Washington avenue, it was reported at 2:20 a.m. today. The loot was valued at $73. Entry was gained through a washroom window by removing a pane of glass.

Thomas Rich, 1361 Edwardsville road, reported at 5:35 p.m. Monday that the front bedroom of his home was ransacked and $40 in change was taken from the room after Saturday. A hammer was left at the scene. Entry was gained through a kitchen window.

Church Burglary
An amplifier was stolen from the auditorium of the Third Baptist Church, 26th street and Grand avenue, in a burglary reported at 8:20 a.m. today. Entry was gained by using a trophy to break a window of the pastor's office, which was ransacked. The trophy was found. It was under the window if anything was missing from the office.

Arky's Rum Dumb club, 16th street and Madison avenue, reported that $88 in cash and a check for $10 made out to cash was stolen from the kitchen area of the tavern where the money had been hidden by a waitress after 5 p.m. Tuesday.

Net, Tires Stolen
Clem Smith, 506 State street, Madison, informed Venice police at 7:15 a.m. Tuesday that thieves stole a weighted net, valued at $70, a spare tire and two boat oars from his pickup truck while the owner was fishing on the Venice riverfront between 11 p.m. Monday and 7 a.m. Tuesday. Police said a trailer, belonging to Donald Wells of Collinsville, parked in the same riverfront area, had two 13-inch wheels and tires removed, apparently by the same thieves.

4 Multiple-Injury Auto Crashes Here

Thundershowers that hit the Quad-City area Tuesday and yesterday brought a total of 2.60 inches of rainfall following a month-long drought in which less than one inch of rain fell throughout July.

The rain gauge at the Chain of Rocks canal and locks, where weather records are maintained for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, showed a fall of .45 of an inch of rain up to 8 a.m. Tuesday, and an additional 2.15 inches up to 8 a.m. yesterday.

There was no rainfall this month through Tuesday afternoon. Rain that swept into the area late Tuesday was the first this month, and there had been none since July 24 when only .12 of an inch fell. A total fall of .90 of an inch of rain was recorded in July.

Claims Report in Error
Mrs. Betty Davis, 2307 Logan avenue, whose son David, seven, was injured in a bicycle-truck accident last Friday, claimed this week that the accident report given to police was in error. She said her son was not riding on the handlebars of the bicycle and that the truck had struck the bicycle, rather than as reported.

She was taken to a physician's office for treatment.

Roy, 9, Injured
Tim McIlroy, nine, was injured when an auto driven by his mother, Donna McIlroy, 2540 Ivy lane, was struck in the right side by an auto driven by Raymond L. Tarr, 2423 Madison avenue, at 2:35 p.m. Tuesday.

The McIlroy car had observed a stop sign and proceeded across Madison without driver seeing the other car. The boy was treated at St. Elizabeth's hospital for head pain and was released following x-rays of the skull and spine.

U. S. Problem Solving Has World's Attention

Although America is being challenged economically and politically, it will remain the world leader by tackling and solving the problems of relationships between differing social and economic groups, Rev. Stanley Howlett, a Madison Rotarian, forecast at yesterday's meeting of the club.

Speaking at a weekly luncheon at the Madison recreation center, Rev. Howlett said many he spoke to on a world tour this summer were well informed on U. S. challenges and favorably impressed by progress being made toward solutions.

"We have started," he said, while many nations ignore racial and poverty issues, accepting starvation and deprivation as unavoidable.

Noting stops at Tokyo, Expo '70, Hong Kong, New Delhi, Tchernan and Rangoon, Rev. Howlett said it is obvious to travelers that the U. S. is the greatest nation anywhere in nearly every way. He said he backs those seeking constructive change but wishes more people could gain more accurate perspective through foreign travel.

The speaker also recalled visits to both sides of the undeclared war in the Middle East. He was introduced by Frank Fijan, and School Supt. Raymond Dragich presided.

Mike Sneyk was recognized by the club for his election as mayor of Madison. Richard Sues is to be the Aug. 12 program chairman.

Sycamore Pop Bark
Have you noticed the pile of flake bark around sycamore trees? Each year these trees develop a new layer of bark beneath the old bark. Then as the tree enlarges, the old bark falls off or is pulled off by birds and the wind.

This pile bark may be another fault of the sycamore, but does create the sycamore gnar and white bark some tree lovers admire.

No Patronage Policy--Metcalfe

Granite City school hiring definitely is not being conducted on the basis of political patronage, School Board President Arthur L. "Pat" Metcalfe told the Press-Record Tuesday in defending the board's July 27 decision naming James J. Jeffries as assistant principal of Grigsby junior high school.

The other faculty member recommended for the post was not recommended for any of the other four other administrative positions filled previously this summer, even though they were of similar responsibility, Metcalfe said.

The two men considered for the Grigsby assistant principal job were among 15 employees interviewed by the board in May and five interviewed on earlier occasions -- considered for the five vacancies, the board president said.

Other than the selection of assistants to the controller and building-grounds supervisor, no other administrative positions remain to be filled until new schools are completed, Metcalfe reported.

Citing minutes of the meeting, the president noted comments by a number of the board members on the 43 and 61 votes resulting in Jeffries' appointment.

Metcalfe's comment in the minutes was that "I feel that this man (the other candidate) had qualifications. But I don't understand. He expressed his desire to become assistant at the high school. We overlooked him before. Why?"

The president pointed out that differences of opinion on formal and informal job recommendations have been frequent. Metcalfe has had to end several 3-3 ties, and sided at different times with different members. No clique of board members has been formed, he stressed.

Carl Macios, a board member who voted with Metcalfe and the majority on the Grigsby school decision, said this week that the rejected candidate was evaluated by the superintendent for at least two other posts besides the one at Grigsby, but was not recommended for the first two.

Macios also said that while educational background, however large, it is not the only factor considered in comparing applicants for promotion.

New Visitor Parking Lot Open at Hospital

Congested parking conditions in the vicinity of St. Elizabeth Hospital were relieved this week with completion of a blacktop parking area, adjacent to the hospital new wing along Iowa street. The pay-as-you-park lot, operated by Hospital Parking Corp. of America, formally opened this week.

Visitors to the local hospital may park in the 48x125-foot fenced parking facility between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. daily. A total of 229 vehicles can be accommodated, a hospital spokesman said.

A second parking area for 72 vehicles, located at the rear of the Tri-Cor Medical Building, 21st street and Madison avenue, is now available for hospital employees and medical staff members.

Those eligible to park in the 24-hour staff area may obtain a key on a monthly rental basis which permits the employee to operate the entrance gate, the spokesman said.

Vandals Wreck, Loot Vacant Venice House

Driver Stays in Car to Avoid Electrocuting

A Granite City man is alive and well today because he used good sense, failed to panic and remained in his automobile after an Union Electric highline carrying 34,000 volts of electricity, fell across the vehicle early this morning.

Jess McGinniss, 53, of 3141 Jill avenue, who was driving to work in East St. Louis at 4:50 a.m. today, told Madison police that he was at the corner of Edwardsville road and McCambridge avenue, a flash of lightning blinded him momentarily.

When he regained his sight, the motorist said, "I saw fire all around the car."

McGinniss halted the car and discovered a live power line was draped across the top of the auto and lodged underneath the vehicle.

The Granite City told police, "he huddled in the seat" until a Union Electric line crew arrived to cut off the power.

A spokesman for the utility firm pointed out, the motorist "would have been electrocuted had he attempted to step outside the car." He said lightning struck a tower carrying a highline for the Mitchell and Wood River areas.

Two of three phases on the tower were turned out, he added. Service was re-routed quickly enabling power to be resumed to customers. A repair crew continued to work on the damaged tower at noon today.

Scott for Worldwide Crusade on Pollution

William J. Scott, Attorney General of the state, issued a statement in Athens, Greece, Tuesday for creation of an international committee to organize a worldwide "people's crusade" against pollution.

Speaking from the Parthenon, one of the world's irreplaceable antiquities, now threatened by the pollution hazard, Scott said: "The Parthenon is more than a building. It is an ideal that belongs to the world. For 2500 years, the Greeks, as custodians, have kept it for mankind."

"Now, in a relatively few years, through misuse of the environment, man is about to do what no one has been able to do in more than 2000 years—destroy the Parthenon."

"And, even worse, man everywhere, in every country of the world, is threatening to destroy his two most precious life-giving elements—air and water."

Immediate Action

"We must immediately launch an international movement to alert everyone to the dangers of environmental pollution."

"Once the problem is recognized on a worldwide scale, the people will find the answers. They will demand the pooling of the world's resources of talent, brainpower and intellect, and find a solution to save the priceless heritage we all share—the same thin global atmosphere that sustains the only known life in the universe."

Scott was the main speaker at "Earth Day," sponsored by the American-Hellenic Educational Progressive Association (AHEPA), meeting in Athens for its 49th annual convention. About 15,000 Greek-Americans—more than 1000 of them from Illinois—were in Athens to attend the convention.

Crade of Civilization

Scott told the thousands gathered at the Parthenon, "We are deliberately starting this People's Crusade here in Athens where, 2500 years ago, the citizens of Athens began Western civilization, to borrow from that knowledge of the past to create a new Age of Reason."

"We must start here today a commitment for action—for every free people in the world to join in the crusade."

In closing, Scott suggested that the new, worldwide crusade to end pollution should be named for the Greek battle cry, "Aera" (air), which Greek warriors sang out proudly to warn the enemy they meant to fight for air to breathe.

The Greek royal guards, the Evzones, were stationed along the path to the rostrum at the Parthenon as Attorney General Scott followed in the footsteps of history.

Money for MH Clinics

An increase of 23.5 percent in state grants for mental health clinics has been announced by Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie. Grants for the fiscal year starting July 1 total $12,131,000, an increase of $2,313,067. The money, awarded through the state mental health department, includes $580,000 in federal funds. Seventy agencies will receive $5,874,000 for 89 community mental health clinics. This is 8.1 percent more than the agencies received last year. Clinics will match grants with $10,885,000 in local funds. Dr. Albert J. Glass, mental health director, said.

MORE ABOUT City Acts

This letter mean that he (Scroggins) is still on the payroll?"

"Yes sir," the mayor said.

"Then he should be here to night," Whitmer responded.

Whitmer asked Robertson if he would be willing to "get-together" with Scroggins in an effort to work out the problem and reach some understanding.

"Should Come to Us"

"I think Scroggins should come to us," Robertson answered.

"I've gone to people a lot of times to try to work things out. I think the finance committee could talk to Scroggins. Can I get assurance that you will try to do something?", Whitmer asked.

Nonn, however, took the floor before Robertson answered and told the council that "I think the only answer now is a full-time city attorney—a man available at all times. There are young attorneys in Granite City who aren't making too much money whom we could afford to hire. We should look into the matter of getting a full-time attorney."

Robertson said he would support a plan to hire a full-time city attorney, but council members immediately began bickering over the method of selecting such an employee.

Favors Elected Attorney
Alderman William M. Dawes said:

"He (the city attorney) should be elected—not appointed. If he were elected, that would be fine. . . . We should put up five or eight names."

Mayor Partney and a majority bloc of the council have been feuding for several years over the mayor's appointment of city department heads and employees.

Partney replied to Dallas that "the state laws provide for the appointment of a city attorney by the mayor. They would have to be changed by the state legislature and not by the council members."

The mayor called for a vote on Moerlein's motion to "file" Scroggins' letter. The motion carried 10-2 with negative votes cast by Nonn and Alderman Thomas Baker. Those absent were Aldermen Rutledge, Jarrett, Schuler and Parnley.

Nonn then moved that the finance committee be instructed to meet as soon as possible to graduate and former star football player at Carbondale, he had been a high school principal at Plano and Metropolis before returning to the University.

In 1961 he became vice-president for operations at the Southwestern campus, and held that post until a 1964 reorganization. He asked to return to teaching and returned to Carbondale, but in 1968 he was appointed special assistant to President Delyte W. Morris.

In that capacity he has been instrumental in studies and revisions of University governance.

Its duties will be that of analyst and adviser to the board, recommending action on the vast array of executive and policy matters that the board must deal with, University-wide.

Brown, a Texas native, taught English at North Texas State University and was a technical publications specialist for General Dynamics before joining the SIU-Edwardsville faculty as professor in 1963.

He became an assistant to the vice-president for academic affairs in 1966, and in 1968 was named assistant to the Southwestern Campus chancellor, John S. Rendleman. He was appointed special assistant to the president last September.

Brown's academic background includes a bachelor's degree in chemistry from Rice University; a master's degree in meteorology from California Institute of Technology; another master's in English, and a Ph.D. in English from the State University of Iowa.

School Superintendent John Pier said the budget must be posted publicly for 30 days. A public hearing then will be held before final adoption.

The district must file its new tax levy with the county clerk's office not later than Sept. 15.

Ogilvie to Press For U.S. Revenue Sharing
Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie told the Midwestern Governors' Conference that he would sponsor a constitutional amendment to require sharing federal revenues with states if revenue-sharing bills remain bottled up in congressional committees.

He said distribution should be on a per capita basis modeled after the Illinois law that gives cities and counties one-twelfth share of the state income tax. Ogilvie invited Midwest governors to the 15-state federally sponsored science conference Nov. 17-19 in Chicago. This will be the fourth of a series of regional conferences on the relations of science and technology with state governments.

Better Roads Save Lives

Safer highways are credited by state engineers with part of the 13 per cent reduction in traffic fatalities reported for the first half of this year compared to the first six months of 1969. Public Works Director William F. Cellini said 532 miles of old, deficient state highways have been improved under Governor Ogilvie's Immediate Action Program. He said 1,500 miles of the most hazardous routes are scheduled for improvement this year. The program will update 5,000 miles of highways, including narrow bridges.

Polar Bear Conclave Described by Veteran

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Evans, 2821 Iowa street, returned Tuesday from Washington, D. C., where they attended a convention of the Polar Bear Association of World War II during the weekend.

The association is composed of veterans of the 339th Combat team of the 85th Infantry Division which fought in North Africa and Italy.

Evans, who received a battlefield commission during the war, said a gold plaque was presented to the manager of Arlington National Cemetery in ceremonies with full military honors which included the Unknown Soldier.

The plaque, which contains the Polar Bear inscription, was placed in the cemetery museum. Evans said the name of the Polar Bear combat team was derived during World War I when it distinguished itself in Russia and was annihilated by cold weather and lack of food and water.

Pilot Computer Course

Eighteen inmates at the Illinois Penal Farm, Vandalia, have completed a basic computer programming course designed to prepare them for careers in data processing. The five-week course to determine the inmates' eligibility to work in the computer field, which is short of trained specialists, was taught by a systems engineer under state contract. If feasibility studies indicate it should be continued, the Department of Corrections vocational and educational staff will administer the project, Director Peter B. Bensinger said.

Price Lauds Retention Of VA Medical Boost

Cong. Melvin Price (Dem. 24th Ill. District) today expressed pleasure that the House of Representatives has "reaffirmed America's obligation to its veterans by agreeing to retain the increase of $105 million over the Administration budget request for the Veterans Administration medical program for the new fiscal year."

The House has adopted the independent offices conference report providing $1.8 billion for VA medical services.

This increase has special consequences for the state of Illinois," Price emphasized.

The directors of the Illinois VA Hospitals and outpatient clinics have reported deficiencies in excess of $3 million. This has resulted in unsatisfactory dental care for returning Vietnam Veterans, limited community nursing care, a shortage of needed equipment, and understaffed hospitals.

The Illinoisan pointed out that "whereas the average staff ratio in private sector hospitals is about 2.72 employees for each patient, the average in Illinois VA Hospitals is 1.44."

Price emphasized that "the added funds agreed upon by the conferees will not solve all the problems. For example, even with the additional funds, the staff ratio can be increased to only 1.57."

Price added, however, that the fund allocation is "a major step toward overcoming the crucial shortages faced by the VA Hospitals in Illinois and across the country."

Venice police officers were called to the vicinity of Logan and Weaver streets at 10:30 p.m. Monday when it was reported a large crowd of youngsters had congregated in the area.

Officers dispersed the group without incident, but were summoned back to the scene at 11:05 p.m. Monday when it was reported that men were seen in the area with weapons.

Officers failed to locate the individuals, but a resident said that two men had "pulled guns on two sisters living in the area." Police learned the sisters were involved in the trouble reported earlier and advised them to file a complaint with the state's attorney's office.

SLENDERETTES PLAN ANNIVERSARY BANQUET

Mrs. Villa Ridings, co-leader of the Future Slenderettes club, presided at the group's Tuesday night meeting held at the East Side Levee office. Mrs. Christine Ersamer and Mrs. Helen Wilson recorded each member's weight, and reports were given. Mrs. Ridings and Miss Donna Barbee shared honors as "co-queens of the week," and each was presented a jeweled pin and the evening's fruit arrangements. The club sang "Hail to the Queen" to the selected members.

Plans were completed for the second anniversary banquet to be held at Rusty's in Edwardsville on Tuesday, Aug. 18. The club's "queen of the year" will be announced at this time. Each member is to bring a gift for use as game prizes.

Other members attending were Madams Jo Melzer, Dorothy Barbee, Beverly Drennan and Pat Wickman and Miss Kathy Brave.

Caine Steel Proposes Plant Expansion Here

Caine Steel Co. is considering expansion of its new plant in the Maers Industrial Park, the Madison city council was informed Tuesday night.

City Atty. John Gitchoff said he was contacted on the proposal before last week's mayoral election and suggested that the firm wait until after that election.

The city provided the land and the money to construct the industrial plant, and Caine Steel proposed sending a representative from its Chicago headquarters to meet with Madison officials to discuss expansion and finances.

Gitchoff said he told the representative that the city is out of funds for industrial financing.

Mayor Mike Sasysk said he plans to establish an industrial committee of the council which would be able to study any proposals.

Madison County Home Adviser,
Home Economics Extension

Few Women Enter Top Professions

Since 1888 the percentage of women doctors, lawyers and college presidents hasn't risen very much and it may be that women want it that way.

A New York sociologist, Dr. Cynthia F. Epstein, says women have pressed for admission to the professions but once admitted express a clear preference for their own domain — the home.

Dr. Epstein's views were expressed in her recently published book, Woman's Place, the outgrowth of a study at Columbia University.

The nation's best educated women—those in whom society has invested most heavily—continue to underperform, underachieve and underproduce, according to the book. And their entrance into the professions has remained nearly constant during this century.

In 1910, 1.9 percent of lawyers were women. The most recent figure from the U.S. Census shows a climb to 3.5 percent. Female nurses in 1900 comprised 94 percent of the total and the recent figure is three percent higher. In 1910, 6.0 percent of doctors were women, comparable to 6.8 percent in 1960. In 1910 over the same span, college presidents and professors who were women remained at 19 percent.

Commercially Canned Foods Are Safe

There is little danger of botulism food poisoning from commercially canned foods. They are processed under carefully controlled conditions and considered safe. However, if a canned food shows any sign of spoilage—bulging can ends, spurting liquid, leakage, off-odor, or mold—do not use it. Don't even taste it.

Freezer Emergency

Don't panic if the power fails or the freezer stops operating normally. A fully loaded freezer will stay cold enough to keep foods frozen for two days—providing you don't open the cabinet. But food may not stay frozen more than one day in a freezer with less than a half a load.

Use dry ice if normal operation cannot be resumed before the food starts to thaw. About 25 pounds of dry ice should keep temperatures below freezing for two to three days in a 10-cubic-foot cabinet with half a load and three to four days in a loaded cabinet.

Care of Tomatoes

Store ripe tomatoes uncovered in the refrigerator. Keep unripe tomatoes at room temperature away from direct sunlight until ripe. Too much sunlight prevents development of even color.

conservation of natural resources

Mike Dixon received badges in pioneering, personal fitness and safety. Russell Pace and Bill Malherk received badges in canoeing.

Attending were the above and Mrs. Evelyn Toller and children, Mary Ann and Dicky, Mr. and Mrs. James Williams and children, Linda, Donna and Jess, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Foote Jr. and children, Dottie and Scott, Mrs. Ann Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schmidt and children, Laurie, Richard, Rita and Ramona, Bernard Dixon, Billy Welch and Raymond Wise.

Community Goal Forum Discussed

A feasibility study on holding a "community congress" was launched Tuesday evening by directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the Tri-Cities.

A dinner meeting, attended by several hundred representatives of local organizations, would be held to aid in determining community goals which have wide interest and support. Conclusions of the congress would be incorporated into the Chamber's yearly "program of work."

The plan was outlined by Manager Howard Colquitt at the August meeting of the Chamber board, held on the boat of Dr. Felicia Koch, a board member. The discussion took place at Harbor Point on the Missouri side of the Alton lake.

C. E. Blankenship, a past Chamber president, reviewed progress of the Chamber accreditation program which was started a year ago. Appraisal

SIU-SW Program Projects 25,000 Enrollment in Next Ten Years

Expect Faculty, Staff Needs to Jump to 3455

What will Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus be like in 1980?

If projections in a proposed long-range plan developed by the faculty and administration and being studied by the Board of Trustees, materials, the next decade should see an enrollment of 25,000 students.

Enrollment will be frozen at 13,700 this fall because of a severe shortage of classroom space and a moratorium on construction. Major population growth is expected in the area during the decade.

The plan also projects a faculty and staff of 3455 to serve the student population.

The trustees and administrators also foresee the formation of a series of problem-oriented academic units with limited enrollments to overcome bigness and meet the needs of students for face-to-face relationships with faculty and other students.

Covers Three Areas
These academic units would be formed to help solve important problems of society. The long-range plan calls for formation of three problem-oriented areas: multi-disciplinary programs aimed at environmental control, urban studies and educational problems.

Separate long-range development programs for both the Southwest and Carbondale campuses were discussed by the SIU board of trustees in a meeting at Carbondale Monday.

The long-range plan is a flexible document which will be reviewed annually for updating and adaptation based on actual experience and new educational, research and service opportunities which arise.

The long-range plan indicates the Southwest campus will continue to be primarily for commuter students, and recommends the University cater to the special needs of commuters who may have classes scattered throughout the day, but lack appropriate space in which to study and relax. The plan recommends temporary living facilities be erected for commuter students who may not want to live on campus for an entire quarter, but need overnight or day-long facilities for brief periods of time.

The major focus of the Edwardsville campus is to remain that of a diversified, multi-purpose institution oriented toward the St. Louis metropolitan area. However, the long-range plan says "the campus assumes that it not only has a regional and state responsibility, but national and international obligations. . . the campus will not limit its programs to the immediate campus, but, with the approval of appropriate authorities, shall offer its instructional, research and service programs throughout the world."

Students from Wide Area
Since its founding the Edwardsville campus has drawn most of its students from Madison, St. Clair, Macoupin, Clinton and Montgomery counties in Illinois. This trend is expected to continue. Last fall 87.4% of the enrollment was from the five counties.

A major construction program is envisioned to accommodate the projected growth in enrollment. Highest priority buildings will be an addition to the existing Communications Building, general classroom buildings for business and education, a physical education building, a fine arts building, and a multi-media undergraduate classroom center. Other buildings projected include a health and clinical center, a life sciences research building, a four-story addition to Lovejoy Library to accommodate one million volumes by 1980, a business research center, a physical sciences research center, medical, dental and nursing building, and a health service building.

On-campus housing will continue to be in the form of married student apartments, with a total of 1240 apartments planned during the decade.

The Trustees are expected to take formal action on the plan at a meeting Aug. 21.

Other changes introduced by university officials over the next ten years include:

Would Triple Research
Tripling of the amount of research on campus, with creative problem-solving research elevated to equal status with pure research.

search. The long-range plan warns that the University will avoid research arrangements which will allow outside agencies to exercise control over the operation of the University.

Construction of a centralized research facility where faculties from many disciplines could work together on common problems.

Greater emphasis on graduate education, a keystone to any growing research program. The plan envisions 30 doctoral level programs, 32 masters programs and 22 bachelor degree programs could be operating by the end of the decade.

Development of additional professional schools. The School of Dental Medicine is expected to admit its first freshman class in September 1971. What is now the Division of Education is expected to become a School of Education within the decade.

The Faculty of Engineering is projected to become a School of Engineering prior to 1980.

Expanded continuing education programs for mature students and for professional men and women needing retraining. The School of Dental Medicine will begin continuing education programs this fall to help area dentists upgrade their professional skills.

Greater use of mechanical and electronic devices to aid classroom instruction. The plan envisions extensive use of remote terminal computers, an expanded audio-visual center and individual study carrels for students in a Learning Resources Center. The carrels would have dial access tape decks. There would also be multi-media teaching centers in each classroom building.

Expansion of the Deans College, which now enrolls 200, to an enrollment of approximately 1200 by 1980. The Deans College program provides exceptionally gifted students more freedom of choice in course selection. Students work with faculty advisers to develop academic programs tailor-made to their interests.

An increase in independent study and colloquia. The plan envisions a separate building for all of these purposes.

A data bank for regional and urban information system. Regional computer systems would provide service to primary and secondary schools and junior colleges.

Data processing services for small businesses.

Another would be a College of Continuing Education with the aim of reaching more low-income and undereducated persons through adult programs.

The College, according to the plan, would help adults remedy their educational deficiencies, learn to cope with new issues and problems of society, improve their job opportunities, learn to become more effective parents and citizens, and improve the general quality of their lives.

Among new programs outlined in the plan is a School of Law, to be presented to the State Board of Higher Education in 1971.

An enrollment ceiling of 12,000 freshmen and sophomore students is predicted for the years after this fall, when by State Board of Higher Education rule lower-division numbers must be established.

Enrollment Questioned
Predictions on upper division enrollment drew questions from the trustees Monday. SIU at Edwardsville already has imposed a fall term ceiling on all enrollment and board member Ivan Elliott Jr. of Carmi inquired whether planners had considered possibilities of a freeze at Carbondale.

John H. Baker, a Carbondale Planning task force member from the government department, said no proposals on an enrollment freeze were included although committee members were concerned over area and international services and campus improvements also were to be discussed.

Plans for area and international services and campus improvements also were to be discussed before final submission of the document to the State Board of Higher Education.

More Free Reign
More emphasis on advising, more free reign to choose individual course majors, more "pass-fail" options and such programs as student-faculty research partnerships were among proposals for strengthening student-teacher ties.

The plan predicted less emphasis on dormitory-type living for undergraduates; more attention to groupings of students by their academic interests.

Not included in the plan, but due in the final proposal, was a 10-year development schedule for the University's data processing and computer facilities. Elliot expressed concern over the mounting costs of computer facilities, which he estimated at $2 million a year.

Plans for area and international services and campus improvements also were to be discussed before final submission of the document to the State Board of Higher Education.

SIU-SW Students Now Have Voice in Policies

Students at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus now have a greater voice in how the campus is run.

A newly-established University Senate gives them voting power for the first time and an opportunity to sit alongside administration and faculty in determining the policies of the campus.

Student representatives on the new University Senate were chosen by the Student Senate. Faculty representatives were elected from each academic unit and administrative representatives were appointed by Chancellor John S. Rendleman.

Two years ago Chancellor Rendleman asked the Southwest Faculty Council to recommend a new committee structure. After a great deal of study by the committees on committees, the Faculty Subcouncil and the Governance Council, the University Senate evolved. This new governing body replaces the Faculty Council.

Dennis Jolly of Granite City is a member of the University Senate.

Six councils will function under the Senate: Curriculum, Graduate, Student Affairs, Faculty Welfare, Planning and Governance.

Prof. George W. Linden, former head of the Edwardsville Faculty Council and a member of the Humanities Division, was elected first president.

"I hope to have maximum participation from the entire University," the new Senate president said. "The right to criticize is predicated on involvement. Meetings will be open and ideas accepted from anyone."

SIU Achieved Growth, Quality During Morris' 22 Years

Dr. Delyte W. Morris, whose tenure as president of Southern Illinois University ended with the board's abolition of the position Monday, became president of the state institution of higher learning in 1948, when he was 41 years old.

Although the title remained the same, the educational complex he administered for 22 years bears little resemblance today to its appearance of past years.

Under his leadership, it has grown to two giant campuses—Carbondale and the Southern campus in Madison county—and conducts a wide variety of research projects and community and international services, the latter stretching as far as Vietnam.

Although SIU and President Morris have become almost inseparable in people's minds, the university actually dates back more than a century, to 1869, when it was chartered as Southern Illinois Normal University.

First Classes in 1874

Its first classes met July 2, 1874. It remained a normal school and a teachers' college until July 1, 1943, when the Illinois General Assembly granted it the powers of a university.

The name was changed to Southern Illinois University by legislative action in 1947.

On July 1, 1949, the diamond jubilee anniversary of the opening of the school, SIU entered into a new period of development when it was removed from the jurisdiction of the State Teachers College Board and was placed under a separate governing board of trustees.

The first permanent board of seven members and the state superintendent of public instruction was appointed Aug. 30, 1951.

With increased appropriations—which Dr. Morris was adept at obtaining—SIU rapidly expanded its facilities and curriculum.

It was in August 1948 that Dr. Morris, a southern Illinois native, became president.

No Other Ambition

When asked at a June 1957 state legislative hearing, "What is your angle? Are you trying well aware of the region's problems and potentialities when he became SIU's eighth president.

Self-Help Approach

He was strongly convinced that it could do a great deal toward "helping" communities help themselves.

Although his own influence and affluence were destined to grow, Morris had a humble beginning not unlike that of the region and the university. After graduation from high school, he attended Park College, a self-help school at Parkville, Mo.

He later spent two years teaching history, algebra and public speaking at the Sulphur, Okla., high school before moving to the University of Maine, where he received his master's degree and served as an instructor for five years.

Speech Department Head

Morris obtained his doctor of philosophy degree at the University of Iowa in 1936 and then became chairman of the speech department in the Junior College at Kansas City, Mo., for two years. He held a similar post at Indiana State Teachers College, Terre Haute, until 1946.

He was invited to accept the SIU presidency after he had served two years as speech department chairman and director of the Speech and Hearing Clinic at Ohio State University.

Dr. Morris married the former Dorothy Arnold Mayo, a graduate of the University of Maine, in 1930. They had two sons, Peter, born Sept. 5, 1937, and Michael, born March 19, 1941.

Lawrence F. Prewett, 63, of 13 Jones Park drive, a janitor at Granite City Steel Company, was pronounced dead at home by Robert Thomas Jr., deputy coroner, at 8:35 p.m. Monday.

Jerry Gerkin, a neighbor, who had not seen Mr. Prewett for several days called police when efforts to arouse him at his home failed. Mr. Prewett, who was under a physician care for a heart ailment, apparently had been dead for several days. There will be an inquest.

Born in St. James, Mo., he had lived in Granite City almost all his life, and had been employed at the steel plant for 15 years.

Surviving are one son, Larry C. Prewett, U. S. Army, stationed in Germany; two daughters, Mrs. Betty R. Dobrowski of Madison and Mrs. Willadean Davis of Las Vegas, Nev.; a brother, Howard Prewett of Granite City and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted today. Arrangements are given in the obituary column.

New Autos Scratched

Vandals used a sharp object to scratch hoods and fenders of two 1970 autos parked in front of Mathews Chevrolet, 1511 Niedringhaus avenue, after 5 p.m. Saturday, it was reported Monday.

Police are looking for the vandals.

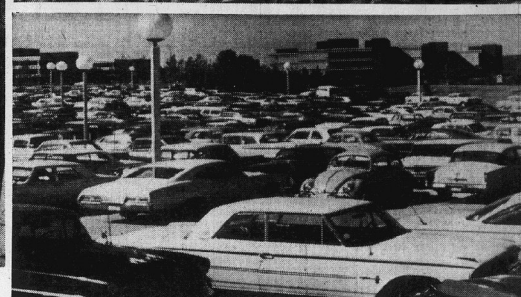

Job Skills, Citizenship

Little by little, the university's wide range of adult education programs and off-campus service efforts began to show in the form of reduced public assistance loads, higher employment and a general spirit of determination to "make southern Illinois a better place to live."

It was able to take education off the campus to people of all ages without losing its high academic rating.

"In fact," Dr. Morris recalls, "the atmosphere of scholarship and creativeness for students improved simultaneously with the university's new interests."

Course work requirements were gradually beefed up in the faculty roster was given new vigor with the addition of teachers and research specialists who rank with the best minds in their respective fields. At one point the staff included four former college presidents. Described as a "practical visionary," Dr. Morris had his ups and downs with legislators and the public but throughout his career was noted for bold planning, dynamic leadership and forceful personality.

A raw-boned six-footer with keen eyes and a ready smile, he can talk the language of academicians, students, farmers, business executive or baseball fans.

A broad range of interests and an insatiable curiosity enable him to converse easily about flowers, folklore, comic strip characters and turbine engines. His reading interests extend from scholarly journals and literary magazines to western novels.

Horse Riding, Boating

Horseback riding, cycling and boating are the recreational diversions he enjoys when he and Mrs. Morris find time.

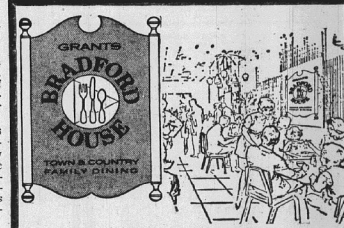

An active participant in athletics during his undergraduate days, he has gained much enjoyment from SIU's sports activities, including football, basketball, wrestling, gymnastics, track and swimming.

He holds key positions in numerous regional, state and national organizations, including the top office in the St. Louis Regional Industrial Development Corporation.

Although he will miss SIU and it will miss him, he can look back on a busy period in which the university and state grew and improved.

In the words of the Employment Security Review, "President Morris' leadership and the university's independent role came at an appropriate time. There is now hardly a city, town or village in southern Illinois that is not benefiting from the university in some direct manner."

Book Lists Home Cures Dating to Biblical Times

A collection of home remedies, some dating to Biblical times, compiled into book form by a group of nurse aide students at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center, caused considerable comment when presented recently at the Illinois War on Poverty convention in East St. Louis.

The 15-page booklet was compiled as a class project under the supervision of Miss Darlene Davlan, nurse aide instructor at the Venice adult vocational school and a former nurse at the U. S. Embassy in Burma.

Miss Davlan, who holds a master's degree from Southern Illinois University, has headed the Personal Services training department at Venice-Lincoln Center since the experimental program was initiated in August 1968.

Through the course, students are instructed in child care, food preparation and care of invalids in private homes. On-the-job training at St. Elizabeth Hospital has since been added to the course curriculum.

Earn Nurse Degrees
Many graduates of the Personal Services course later receive additional training through other educational programs and earn Licensed Practical Nurse degrees, school authorities point out.

Miss Davlan explained that receipts included in the home remedies collection were gathered by students from "many, many sources." Using products at hand from fields and stores, most have been practiced for centuries by people in areas where doctors were unknown or unavailable, she said.

Many remedies proved effective and constitute the basis for modern medicine, she pointed out. Egyptians, Romans, Chinese, Africans, American Indians and Europeans have contributed and used the folk remedies contained in the collection, she added.

In presenting the booklet at the recent conference, Miss Davlan commented on the preface, which notes— "The concern today in Ecology, it may be well to go back to the honest Earth."

Several folk recipes and simple (medicinal herbs) cures provoked a humorous response in the modern-day reader, others may be considered unsuitable in content for publication in a newspaper. A few excerpts from the "Receipts and Simples" booklet follow:

Sunburn—Equal parts of olive and lime water patted on skin.

Bald spots—Rub salt into a bald spot to bring hair back. Keep hair uncovered.

Healthy hair and scalp—Use first May water that falls (rain or snow).

Hair restorer—Rosemary carried or fresh leaves crushed into bald spot.

Cracks between or under toes and grass cuts—Tie piece of wool yard over area until healed. About two to three days.

Calluses and corns—Mustard flour mixed with saliva; apply three mornings in succession. Or, wrap corn in adhesive tape and leave for one week. (If it can't get air, it can't grow.) Or, lemon rind, cut and put around corn (allow corn to poke through); corn will peel off in 48 hours.

Athletes foot—Two tablespoons of bleach and one gallon of water mixed. Soak feet each night until cleared up.

Sore lips—Wash lips with a strong tea made of the bark of the white oak.

Bump on head—Use cold knife blade held against injury to prevent swelling.

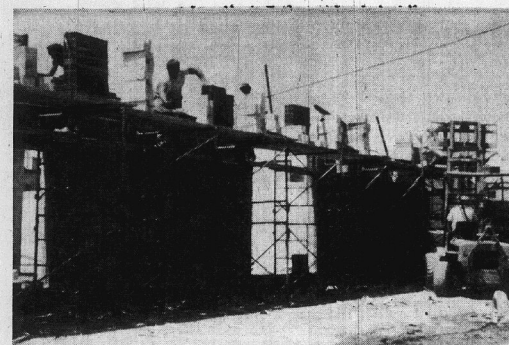

Living in babies—Rash on face at about three months. You can tell when they are living because they smile in their sleep a lot. Give catnip tea to bring out rash and dry it up.

Burns—Hard to heal a burn in March. Parched sweet gum balls and soot, or, baking soda paste; or, tablespoon of syrup and baking soda, or dry flour; or, cocoa butter.

Fever blither—Ear wax on the blister.

To Heal Wounds
Heal wounds—Milk and bread poultice. Take stale bread in crumbs, pour boiling sweet milk over (or milk and water), simmer until soft, stirring it well.

Teething—Wear a asafetida cure, or, teething beads on string around neck; or, grasshopper nest, string and wear around neck; or, wear coin around neck, particularly a penny.

EXPANSION OF STORE buildings at Belleme Village Shopping Center is under way in a program that will substantially increase floor space of the Arcade and adjoining shops. Construction shown here is at rear of main building that will enlarge areas occupied by Glik's Department store, Belleme Hardware, the Sports store and Reese Drug store as well as the Arcade. Work is being done by Wolff Construction Co., St. Louis.

Stop bleeding—Put spider web in wound; rub on soot; pour in flour.

Blood clots—Oil of dill and grease the limbs.

Heart trouble—Smell basil. Bladder trouble—Brown egg shells, powder them, drink them in warm water.

Diarrhea—Wash and dry lining of chicken gizzard. Grind up and give by mouth; or, drink blackberry juice; or, drink starch or flour water; or, butter-milk or cottage cheese taken as only food until cured.

Kidney pain—Take bacon and garlic, render together, apply over kidneys three or four times. Cover with warm sand bag or with brick.

Whooping Cough Cure
Whooping cough—Cut hair off nape of neck. Put hair in biscuit, feed it to dog. Or, hopping toad frog soup; skin frog, cook legs, drink liquid.

Chicken pox—Put person in chicken house.

Mumps—Take marrow from old hog jaw (the older the better). Massage upward, tie on top of head with cloth for support. If marrow is unavailable, use sardine or goose grease in same way.

Eight-day pneumonia—Drink cow manure tea, beap patient in pine tar blanket.

Pneumonia—Heat onions in oven. Put these between two pieces of flannel, lay on chest. Keep hot. Do this for 20 minutes, four times a day.

Rheumatism—Burdock root tea (snake weed). Make tea out of peach tree leaves; or, wear a copper bracelet; or wear gold.

Sprain—Poultice of crushed juniper berries and hay flowers. Boil in good old wine; apply as poultice.

Tuberculosis—Sleep with six hunting dogs for one year.

State Acts to Repel Outbreak Of Encephalitis

The Illinois Department of Public Health has instituted a special surveillance program to avoid a recurrence of the 1988 outbreak of St. Louis encephalitis which occurred in two specific locations in the southern part of the state.

Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, department director, said that although the possibility of another such outbreak exists, no indications of the disease have been reported. If there is a confirmed diagnosis of St. Louis encephalitis in Illinois last four to eight weeks, and since the incubation period is five to 15 days, it should be possible to shorten, or even abort, a threatened outbreak, Dr. Yoder said.

Immediate Test Action

Any private practicing physician can trigger the team into action by submitting sera from suspect cases to the Illinois Department of Public Health laboratory in Chicago and reporting the cases to his local or regional health department, or by calling the state health department in Springfield.

The virus of St. Louis encephalitis is transported to man by the bite of a mosquito which has bitten a bird carrying the encephalitis virus, Dr. Yoder explained. Not all kinds of mosquitoes are transmitters of virus, however, but one particular species—Culex pipiens—only occasionally passes on the virus while biting humans or horses.

If this does happen and a human or horse develops mosquito-borne encephalitis, that case does not become the source for an epidemic.

The Culex pipiens mosquito lays its eggs in water with a high organic content, often associated with decaying weeds or improper sewage disposal. The mosquitoes breed in almost any quiet water, from large permanent bodies to puddles as small as those that form in footprints.

These mosquitoes are quiet during the day, active between dusk and dawn.

If the clinical disease occurs, it usually occurs in persons over 65 in late summer and early fall, Dr. Yoder said. After the incubation period, he explained, the patient develops fever, headache, vertigo, rigidity in the nape of the neck, lethargy, confusion, failure of muscular coordination and difficulty with speech.

King Family, Serkin at River Festival

Peter Serkin, 22-year-old chamber music performer and recording artist, and the King Family will make their appearances at the Mississippi River Festival at SIU-SW campus this week-end.

Serkin will be guest artist Thursday and Saturday, Aug. 6 and 8, at performances which begin at 8:30 p.m. He will play Mozart's Piano Concerto No. 18 in B Flat Major, K.456. Dean Dixon will be guest conductor.

Recently described by a Chicago Tribune critic as "one of the finest pianists of our time," Serkin will appear for the fifth time in six years at the Ravinia Festival. He will also give concerts in Switzerland and France.

In the few seasons since he has begun to concertize actively in this country and abroad, Serkin has appeared with such distinguished ensembles as the Amsterdam Concertgebouw and English Chamber orchestras, the Cleveland and Philadelphia orchestras, Toronto and London symphonies and with the Japan, Los Angeles, New Or-

To Conduct Symphonies Dixon, music director of the Hessischer Rundfunk orchestra of Frankfurt, Germany, returns to the U.S. to conduct three American symphony orchestras this summer. He made his debut in 1957 at the New York

Town Hall. Within a few years he was hailed as the first Negro to conduct the leading orchestras of this country and to win general recognition as a conductor of classical music.

In addition to his concerto by Serkin, Dixon will conduct the St. Louis Symphony in Paganini Variations by Blacher and Symphony No. 1 in C Minor by Brahms.

The King Family originated as the "Driggs Family of Entertainers" when the late William King Driggs Sr., a music teacher from Utah, found his family growing faster than his salary. He, his wife, and eight children began entertaining during the summer months at churches, schools, clubs and theaters in the west.

This family has continued to perform and now includes brothers, husbands, nieces and nephews and younger children. The family branches, during the 1972 holiday season. It also will appear on posters, billboards and television screens.

Production schedules require that the Christmas Seal design be selected two years in advance of issue, Mrs. Barth explained. The 1970 Seal, created by L. Gerald Snyder of California, goes in the mail in

GC Veteran's Support Acknowledged by Nixon

An embossed card from President Richard Nixon recently was received by Stephen Konkovich, 2809 Dogwood drive, in response to a letter from Konkovich to the White House, in which he expressed his support of the President's policies in Southeast Asia.

Konkovich, a World War II veteran and an officer in Quad-City Armvets Post 51, primarily was responsible for arranging the Venice Tribute, which honored the community for adopting an ordinance designating a policy of flying the flag of the United States at half-mast as final tribute to any local serviceman who dies in the service of his country.

The Venice city ordinance has since been adopted by many communities throughout the nation and was cited in a joint resolution by the U. S. Congress in June. The resolution, introduced in the U. S. Senate by Sen. Ralph T. Smith (R-Alton), with the House of Representatives concurring in its enactment, urged local authorities, veterans and civic groups and individual citizens to adopt the flag-flying policy.

The card received from President Nixon states: "Your encouragement for our country's goals in Southeast Asia means a great deal to America's fighting men as well as to me. I was pleased to hear from you and I want you to know how much your comments are appreciated. With my best wishes, Richard Nixon."

8-Race Cycle Program Here On Saturday

Professional motorcyclists will drive in an eight-race short track program at the Tri-City Speedway Saturday. Qualifying trials are at 7:30 p.m. and the racing program begins at 8 p.m.

Neal Keen continued his perfect string of winning every event he has entered last week despite the competition of riders from the American Motorcycle Association grand national schedule.

Keen's perfection should encounter a different type of challenge starting Saturday and continuing for several weeks. A short track specialist, Keen will begin facing other short track specialists as they travel into this region following the county fair cycle racing circuit.

The second annual Gateway Classic race is tentatively being planned for the Tri-City Speedway. A mid- or late-August date is under discussion.

The large purse race would be held on the half-mile oval track.

Mayor Proclaims Navy Mothers' Day on Aug. 14

Navy Mothers' Day will be observed Friday, Aug. 14, in Granite City. Mayor Donald Partney has signed a proclamation setting the date. Mrs. Betty Merz is commander of the local chapter, and Mrs. Norma Darnell is Illinois Commander.

The proclamation follows:

Whereas: The Navy Mothers' Clubs of America, Club #550 of Granite City, Illinois, deserves a warm salute of sincere thanks from all the citizens of Granite City for its many years of faithful work and helpful services to the service men and women of this area; and

Whereas: The Navy Mothers' Clubs are truly unselfishly in the Naval and Veterans Hospitals and installations throughout the country; and

Whereas: Granite City has been a generous contributor to the United States Navy, United States Marine Corps and United States Coast Guard, and many citizens, both men and women, have at one time worn, or are wearing the uniform of one of these services; and

Whereas: The Navy Mothers' Clubs of America are made up of mothers whose sons or daughters have served, or are serving honorably in the United States Navy, United States Marine Corps or United States Coast Guard; and

Whereas: Many of these sons and daughters have given their lives in defense of their country during the two World Wars and the Korean and Vietnam Conflicts; and

Whereas: The purposes of this organization are charitable and educational, to promote a friendly and sympathetic relationship among the parents of the men and women in the United States Navy, United States Marine Corps and the United States Coast Guard; and

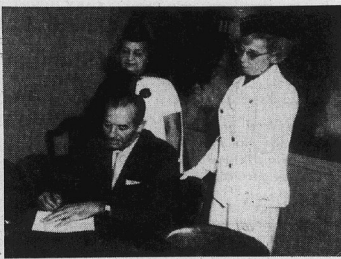

Whereas: They collect and disseminate information relating to the services and the manner of living and environment of its personnel; and

Whereas: They cultivate a respectful and cordial attitude of civilians toward men and women in any branch of the United States Navy, United States Marine Corps or the United States Coast Guard; and

Whereas: They help provide for the Servicemen's Center, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and the Blue Jacket's Haven, Oakland, California; and

Whereas: It is a great pleasure to recognize the Navy Mothers' Clubs in setting aside a day to call attention to the concerns of the many outstanding services this organization renders to our city, our state and our country.

Now, Therefore, I, Donald Partney, Mayor of the city of Granite City, do hereby proclaim this 14 day of August, 1970, as NAVY MOTHERS' DAY in Granite City, and ask that all citizens pay respect and honor to these mothers who helped and are helping in this great work.

Former GC Man Building Hotel in San Salvador

Ray Edwards of Billings, Mo., a Granite City resident until a few years ago, is engaged in building an ocean-front hotel in El Salvador with plans to make the 160-mile long coastal line "the Riviera" of Central America.

The former resident left on June 4 on his 15th trip to El Salvador to continue supervision of the project. Previous trips were to assist the El Salvador laborers in clearing excess vegetation and creating roads on the 20-acre tract which has fronts on the Pacific Ocean.

This particular site is located 25 miles from the capital city of San Salvador with a population of about 550,000.

Edwards, vice-president and general manager of Hoteles Sol y Mar, expects to begin construction of the hotel complex in September with completion date set for December, 1971.

To Expand Later

The original building will have 45 rooms, with the number to be doubled later. Also included in the first stages of the building will be nine bungalows on a wooded slope at the back of the beach and an elevated restaurant with a seating capacity of 250 plus other entertainment facilities.

Another feature of the ocean vista is two natural pools cut into a volcanic ledge a few feet above sea level, which are filled with fresh salt water as high tide splashes in many times daily, creating waterfalls.

Edwards, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Traylor of 1824 Primrose avenue, has traveled extensively in this country and Alaska. He also has driven the Inter-America Highway to Panama. He purchased the tiny "halfway" house in the country and Alaska. He also has driven the Inter-America Highway to Panama. He purchased the tiny "halfway" house in the country and Alaska. George A. Sander on Coast Guard Cutter

Coast Guard Fireman Apprentice George A. Sander, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Sander of 3020 Dale avenue, is helping train 64 cadets from the Coast Guard Academy as crew member aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Mackinaw in the Great Lakes.

During the cruise the Mackinaw was to visit Burns Harbor, Ind., Mackinaw Island and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and the Coast Guard Festival at Grand Haven, Mich.

Attend Funeral of Relative

Mrs. Mary Gates, 1635 Maple street, and Mrs. Kathryn Barson, 1610 Poplar street, have returned from New York where they were called to attend the funeral of their brother and nephew, Joseph Kobold. Surviving beside the relatives here is another sister, Mrs. Anna Schreiber of Germany.

Activity Program Emphasized at Alton Hospital

The Madison County Unit Activities Department of Alton State Hospital is placing a great deal of emphasis upon community programs to try to refresh the patient's spirit, strengthen his sense of values, reduce his loneliness, alleviate the hopeless resignation of his illness and lead him to re-socialization.

The program establishes a sound and worthwhile rapport with a variety of community activity areas, officials said. Clients can mingle and become exposed again to realistic situations, while still under structure supervision. In an activity program, the patient is provided an opportunity to creativity and self expression which is somewhat limited within the structure of in-hospital programs.

Activities are programmed for three days and two nights a week, and is supervised by Randy Wheeler, a staff of other therapists, and five college students who are employed for the summer. Outdoor activities at the hospital include darts, horseshoes, basketball and many other sport type games.

Attend Area Events

Other programs include swimming, miniature golf, St. Louis opera, Mississippi River Festival, roller skating, drive-in movies and bowling

Band From Big Pink to Close Festival

Some rock groups make it on energy, some on volume, some on charisma, and there are some who make it on music, like the Band from Big Pink, which will close the second Mississippi River Festival, Tuesday, Aug. 11. Their performance will begin at 8:30 on the SIU-SW campus.

Ticket prices range from $2 for lawn seats to box seats at $5.50 and children under 12 will be seated on the lawn for $1.

The band, which is making its second appearance, abandoned the surface shock of abstract rock rather than the heaviness of psychedelia.

Canadian-born with the exception of Helm, who comes from Arkansas, members of the band have similar histories, early exposure to music and rock bands in high school.

"Home" is the Big Pink, a house located near the upstate New York community of Woodstock. The band has been making music described as "like fresh breeze blowing through the blasting decibels." Some of its music is represented in the band's first Capitol album, "Music From Big Pink."

The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra will present its grand finale at this year's festival on Sunday, Aug. 9, at 7:30 p.m.

Under the baton of Walter Susskind, the symphony will be assisted by the SIU Chorus and brass band.

Included on the program will be Three Slavonic Dances by Dvorak, Prelude to the Afternoon of a Faun by Debussy, Classical Symphony by Prokofiev and Finlandia by Sibelius.

The SIU Chorus will sing in the performance of Polovitsian Dances by Borodin. The 1812 Overture by Tchaikovsky, which concludes the program, will include the band and usual artillery.

At California Base

Marine Private Andrew M. Griffith, son of Mrs. Gloria Clark, 2908 Buxton, Granite City, was graduated from basic training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego. He will continue his training at Infantry Training Regiment, Camp Pendleton, Calif. Griffith attended Coolidge junior high school.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Pursuant to law in such case made and provided, public notice is hereby given that there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Illinois at the General Election to be held on November 3, 1970, for adoption or rejection of the proposed Article IX-A to the Illinois Constitution, the said Article to read as follows:

ARTICLE IX-A

Section 1. Notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution, the taxation of personal property by valuation is prohibited, as to individuals.

SCHEDULE

Paragraph 1. This amendment shall become effective January 1, 1971.

Form of Ballot

The proposed amendment to add Article IX-A will appear upon the constitution ballot in the following form:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ADD ARTICLE IX-A

(Prohibition of taxation of personal property by valuation as to individuals.)

EXPLANATION OF AMENDMENT

The amendment would abolish the personal property tax by valuation levied against individuals. It would not affect the same tax levied against corporations and other entities not considered in law to be individuals. The amendment would achieve the purpose of a new article to the Constitution of 1870, Article IX-A thus setting aside provisions in the existing Constitution, Article IX, section 1, that require the taxation by valuation of all property, real and personal or other, owned by individuals and corporations.

Place an X in blank opposite "Yes" or "No" to indicate your choice.

SECTION 1:

Beautiful Sound at River Festival Just Doesn't Happen -- It's Well Worked Out

If you see a man who looks like Arthur Godfrey wandering around with earphones at the Mississippi River Festival at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, he isn't a bored patron. He's audio engineer Robert Shaw, trying to bring you the best in sound.

Beautiful sound from the big tent at SIU-SW doesn't just happen. It is well planned and involves more than music by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra and other top entertainers.

"SRF sound is the finest I have ever produced," says Shaw, sound system consultant and owner of the J. C. Gordon Co. of St. Louis. "Acoustics are excellent because of the gradual reinforcement used. We are able to marry the live performance to the acoustical surroundings with electronic equipment." Shaw estimates that 85 percent of the auditoriums in the country are poor acoustically. "It's inconsistent," he points out, "to build an expensive building and install cheap sound equipment. This didn't happen at SIU."

Reinforces Live Sound
"Planners of the festival wanted an audio system which would reinforce the live sound into the field with no apparent loud speaker sound," Shaw explained. "The result is a series of speakers spaced at strategic points to boost the sound from the stage. Live sound going to each speaker is calculated so that it reaches listeners about one 20,000th of a second ahead of the electronic sound. To give a more natural tone to the delayed signal, a small amount of artificial reverberation is added."

Shaw collaborated with Christopher Jaffe, designer of several major outdoor shells and pavilions in this country, "to put the best of our combined experience into the sound system at the festival."

Shaw is responsible for the sound system at Beaumont, Pavillon and Graham Chapel at Washington University, Powell Hall, and the computer-designed sound system at Christ Church Cathedral in St. Louis, first of its kind in the Midwest.

"The guidelines and tremendous creativity and drive of SIU's President Delye Morris and Chancellor John Rendleman and the St. Louis Symphony board drew out every bit of my imagination," Shaw said in explaining the success in sound at the Mississippi River Festival. "I have never worked with more cooperative, more well organized or more highly skilled personnel."

ROBERT SHAW, standing, sound system consultant at the Mississippi River Festival, gives Southern Illinois University music major Byron Walter of Edwardsville a pointer on audio at St. Louis Symphony Orchestra concert.

"I am especially pleased to be working with SIU students," Shaw said, who received his training at Hixley, Technical High School and Washington University. "Three music majors are helping me as sound operators. Jim Betts of Collinsville; Byron Walter, Edwardsville; and Don Bastien, Greenville. It's kind of a music laboratory for them. Many times the four of us discuss balance of various instruments and we often consult with the able assistant symphony conductor, Leonard Slatkin, who is 'hep' on symphonic and popular media."

It isn't unusual to find Shaw and his "class" talking backstage with St. Louis Symphony members. "Their opinion are important in getting overall sound balance," Shaw says. "One thing I find, however, the violinist wants more violins and the horn player wants more horns," he chuckled. "Theory and practice are hard to marry," he says. "Going from a Mozart symphony to a mighty Beethoven Ninth choral symphony to simple folk singing or hard rock isn't easy. We use a sophisticated custom designed control unit which gives us command over 12 different microphones, and we have six telephones from which to give directions."

Aliens Need Permits To Leave Country

Aliens who are planning to leave the country are required to obtain a sailing or flight permit from the Internal Revenue Service. The alien must apply in person and have the necessary information to obtain the tax clearance, according to Jay C. Philpott, district director.

Sailing or flight permit is the common term for Certificate of Compliance required of resident aliens leaving the country by ship, plane, or other means of transportation. U. S. citizens leaving the country are not required to obtain sailing or flight permits for tax clearance.

Philpott explained in order to obtain a Certificate of Compliance the department alien must provide a passport and visa or Alien Registration Card, re-entry permit, copies of income tax returns for 1968, and 1969, receipts of tax payments, declarations of estimated tax if such forms was filed, and a statement of income and expenses for 1970.

In the Springfield district which covers Central and Southern Illinois, aliens may apply at the district office at 325 West Adams Street, Springfield, or at any local IRS office.

Departing aliens are asked to apply at least two weeks but not earlier than 30 days before the date of departure. Important information may be required before the sailing or flight permit is issued. Many wait until the last minute and sometimes find, to their disappointment, that they cannot obtain the required information by the date set for departure.

Office hours are 8 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. Monday through Friday. Applicants should appear at least one hour before closing time, Philpott said.
